Dealer in Boots and Shoes,

HATS, CAPS, RUBBER GOODS, &c.,

Camden, Delaware, Apr 20th 1888

Hon. S. M. Fox—

Director U. S. Mint

Dear Sir

A friend has in his possession a well preserved Silver dollar 1799—The obverse side has the Bust of Liberty— with the word Liberty and thirteen stars—

The reverse side has the Eagle and shield, thirteen stars, and on the edge, the words, Unit^d, one hundred cents and one dollar—

He wishes to know if it has more than its face value, and probably how much—

Yours Truly W R Postles
